

Legal Opportunities- Paralegal

- High performing Litigation Group
- Full Time Role
- Varied exposure

PricewaterhouseCoopers is the number one Professional Services firm and we pride ourselves on our vision, values and the ability to provide exceptional service to a vast network of clients. We are a firm full of energy, challenge, innovation and opportunities. Our people connect their thinking, experience and solutions to enhance value to our clients.

Our legal practice consists of lawyers from a variety of backgrounds incorporating both local and overseas experience. The work we undertake is both diverse and interesting and through the utilisation of our Global network allows us to be known in the legal community as thought leaders and subject matter experts.

Our high performing litigation group presently seeks a self motivated Paralegal. In a varied position you will support a team of solicitors across a range of corporate and commercial matters. Key responsibilities will include drafting documentation, writing trial preparation pieces, contract discipline and court attendance. A prior exposure to working in a litigation team is preferred but not essential, however excellent interpersonal skills and a pride in your work is a prerequisite.

This is an excellent opportunity open to a law student not yet admitted to practice but who has a thirst for applying their process and policy knowledge across a range of cases. This role will give you strong practical knowledge in an environment that prides itself on putting its people first.

Please apply via email to mark.killingbeck@au.pwc.com or call Mark Killingbeck on 02 8266 0669 for a confidential discussion.

Intro

PricewaterhouseCoopers litigation practice presently has an opening for a Paralegal- Ideal opportunity for Law Student.