

This form is to be used where no nomination of compensable injury was made in the original application form for compensation.

Injuries

Part 1

You can only claim compensation for injuries found in the Schedule of Injuries in the Act. A copy of this Schedule can be obtained from the Tribunal.

Compensation is awarded for a maximum of 3 injuries. The full standard amount shown in the Schedule is paid for the most serious injury; 10% of the standard amount for the second most serious injury; and 5% of the standard amount for the third most serious injury.

The injuries you are claiming for must be substantiated. Recent colour photos may assist if you are claiming for scarring.

You must nominate the compensable injuries (as required by Clause 6 of the Rule 1997)

Compensable Injury (as described in Schedule 1)	Standard amount of compensation
1.	$
2.	$
3.	$

Part 2

Compensable injury of psychological or psychiatric disorder

Have you claimed psychological or psychiatric disorder in Part 1?

No ➔ Go to Part 3

Yes ➔ You must nominate which Category you are claiming:

Category 1, chronic psychological or psychiatric disorder that is moderately disabling, or

Category 2, chronic psychological or psychiatric disorder that is severely disabling

Please complete the details over the page ➔

To claim the compensable injury of psychological or psychiatric disorder a report is required by an Authorised Report Writer (ARW). An ARW is a qualified person who will prepare a written assessment of your condition to assist the Tribunal in determining whether you have a compensable injury.

Please nominate an ARW

Please note that your ARW cannot be the same person who has provided or who is providing you with counselling.

A list of ARWs can be obtained from the Tribunal on (02) 9374 3111. If you are calling from outside the metropolitan area, ring 1800 069 054 (toll free).

Alternatively, a list of the ARWs is available on the Victims Services' website at <http://www.lawlink.nsw.gov.au/vct.nsf/pages/arwlist>

After you have nominated a category of psychological or psychiatric disorder and an ARW the Tribunal will advise you in writing when approval has been given for an appointment to be made.
